

SECRET

Approved For Release 2002/11/14 : CIA-RDP80B01676R001300090053-3

DAILY LOG

Office of the Deputy Director

Date 7 May 1962

25X1

[Large rectangular redacted area]

25X1

[Large rectangular redacted area]

✓

[Large rectangular redacted area]

25X1

✓

4. OCI memo on Situation in Burma indicating that Ne Win and the extreme wing of the Union Revolutionary Council appear to have control of the government. (OCI No. 1270) ✓

5. OCI Memo on Situation in Portugal indicating it is likely that Salazar will remain in control at least through 1962. (OCI No. 1269) ✓

6. ONE memo suggests that the 6 May attack by Communist forces on Nam Tha, a provincial capital in northern Laos, was calculated to undercut Phoumi's position, further demoralize the Laotian and government, and, perhaps, cause the US to increase its pressures on Phoumi. (ER 3011) ✓

7. ONE Estimate that the India/ChiCom border dispute will not likely result in major military escalation even though both sides have committed their prestige making small-scale clashes likely and making it harder for either side to back down. ✓

Approved For Release 2002/11/14 : CIA-RDP80B01676R001300090053-3

SECRET

EdB